The Academic Procession

The procession begins with the entrance of the candidates for degrees. Led by faculty marshals, the candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, both the Teaching Program and the Liberal Arts Program, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science enter in groups, representing each of the undergraduate colleges. They are followed by the candidates for the highest degrees.

Students wearing a bronze medallion are those graduating summa cum laude (with highest honors), which represent the top three percent of each college by grade point average; or those graduating students receiving a Purple and Old Gold Award, given to those students who have excelled in scholarship or who have shown conspicuous achievement in particular areas.

The procession continues with representatives of the faculty.

The President's Party forms the final section of the academic procession. Headed by the commencement marshal, it includes the president; members of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa; administrative officers; the academic deans; and honored guests.

The individuals leading the procession of the graduates, the faculty and the president's party carry a mace which is a symbol of office. Those individuals are the student body president, the chair of the faculty and the university commencement marshal. Over long tradition, a mace is a symbol of authority and official celebration. The university mace is the largest of the three maces and it embodies the history and dignity of the entire university. The president wears a jeweled “Chain of Office” symbolizing the wearer is the leader of the institution. The silver chain includes links with the names of previous presidents of the institution, as well as previous names of the university.

The academic costumes worn trace their origin to the Middle Ages when long-sleeved hooded gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated stone colleges. Over the centuries, much diversity occurred, and to bring some order, in the United States in 1894 an intercollegiate system of academic costume was agreed on, now adhered to by American institutions. According to this code, both the styling and colors of the regalia have significance.

The design of the gown indicates the degree. The bachelor’s is a simple gown with a full sleeve. The master’s gown is much like it except for the long sleeve which hangs loose. The doctoral gown is fuller and more elaborate. It has velvet edging and three velvet stripes on the full sleeve. The color of this velvet may be black or in the color appropriate to the degree.

Hoods, which are worn over the gowns, are similar for all degrees, although differing slightly in length. The candidates for the bachelor’s degrees usually do not wear the hood. The hood has a velvet edging which indicates the area of the degree, and the inside or lining of the hood is satin in the colors of the college or university granting the degree.

A partial list of the degree colors to be found on the edge of the hood or the trimming on the doctoral gown is as follows:

- Apricot - Nursing
- Drab - Business
- Orange - Engineering
- Blue, dark - Philosophy
- Green - Medicine
- Pink - Music
- Blue, light - Education
- Green Sage - Physical Education
- Purple - Law
- Brown - Fine Arts
- Lemon - Library Science
- Scarlet - Theology
- Citron - Social Science
- Maize - Agriculture
- White - Arts and Letters
- Copper - Economics
- Maroon - Family
- Yellow Golden - Science and Consumer Sciences

Lux Service Award

The University of Northern Iowa Lux Service Award is presented by the Office of the Dean of Students annually to undergraduate students who best represent the ideal of service to the university community.

The honor is conferred in the spirit of keeping the light of service to others burning bright at UNI. The name of the award, Lux, is from the university’s official seal that features a burning lamp of knowledge and the Latin word for light.

Congratulations to the 2021 Lux Service Award Recipients:

Ayah Al-Durazi is a senior majoring in Political Science with a minor in Politics and Law. Ayah has been involved in several organizations during her time on campus and has held various leadership positions and executive roles in Northern Iowa Student Government as Senator and Chair of Campus Relations, as well as Director for Community Outreach for Ethnic Student Promoters, all while selflessly giving back through her role as a mentor for three years through UNI’s Thrive program which aims to support and uplift multicultural students. Ayah has left an indelible mark not just on campus through her leadership positions, but is also a role model to her younger siblings who affectionately refer to her as their second mother. Ayah is noted as saying that UNI has taught her what it means to truly be a leader, and that is “someone who serves others rather than someone who seeks to control.”

Cassie Hendrix is a senior majoring in Marketing, with an emphasis on Digital Media & Advertising, and Textiles & Apparel. She quickly got involved on campus her freshman year joining Student Admissions Ambassadors and Business Students Ambassadors where she ultimately held positions as Public Relations-Co Chair and VP of Community Outreach respectively. Cassie’s passion for UNI also shows through her volunteer involvement as a member of Connecting Alumni to Students. Supporting the mission of CATS, Cassie has worked to “foster meaningful student alumni relationships, and keep the traditions of UNI alive.” Cassie has shared that she gets involved and gives back not for praise, but because it’s her life’s goal to help others. As a first generation student she carved out a path all her own. She hopes to show others with similar experiences that they shouldn’t let circumstances define them or make them feel less deserving. As she puts it, she didn’t let her background be a barrier, she used her work ethic and determination to go above and beyond, both inside and outside the classroom.

Zoella Sneed is a senior majoring in Theatre Performance and Theatre for Youth. Zoella believes that everyone has talents, and as a Theatre major wanted to give students outside her major a platform to grow and showcase those talents. With this goal in mind, she conceptualized and founded UNI’s annual “Best of Broadway Cabaret” aiming to engage all UNI students in Theatre. As a Black woman in the Theatre department, Zoella also noticed the glaring underrepresentation of Black culture in the department. In direct response to that she co-founded UNI Multicultural Theatrical Society, a student organization that provides a platform for marginalized students to use their voices and pursue multicultural theater practices. As an activist, she helped to advocate for the creation of the Equity and Anti-Racism faculty board within the Theatre department which ensures equitable practices within TheatreUNI. Zoella has worked to remove the emotional labor that marginalized students have had to carry and guarantees that all students and faculty are accountable for uplifting diversity and inclusion. Zoella is quoted as saying “UNI gave her, her voice”, “and “being a part of TheatreUNI and other student organizations has actively taught her how to use her voice for the betterment of our campus and society.”

UNI ALMA MATER

Words by Arnold Gummer, '48
Music by Wm. Kloster, '51

SOPRANO ALTO

UNI O Alma Mater, hear our voices now in song.
From the hallowed halls of learning, rising from the fertile land,

TENOR BASS

Hail to thee, O state of plenty, Thou hast raised it proud and strong.
Guide to guide thy sons and daughters in the pattern of thy hand.

S. T.

True in spirit, strong in knowledge, UNI, we sing our homage.

S. T.

Hail to thee, O Alma Mater, our to-morrows shall be thine!

Fine
