Dear Panther Family,

The purpose of higher education is to positively impact society through the lives of our alumni, students, faculty, and staff.

UNI makes a positive difference in the world by providing a high quality learning environment that empowers our students to discover where they belong. We also fulfill our purpose by advancing knowledge, promoting creativity, and solving problems in partnership with the people, schools, communities, and industries we serve. Commencement offers an opportunity to pause and celebrate the accomplishments of our students and the important work we do to prepare graduates for lives of purpose through their careers and in their homes and communities.

To the graduates of the Class of 2018—Congratulations! You make us all Panther Proud. We hope you stay engaged with your Alma Mater. To the faculty and staff who prepared our graduates for success throughout their lives, thank you for your dedication to helping our students meet their educational, professional, and personal life goals.

Panther Proud!

University Honors Program

Graduates wearing gold University Honors medallions are recipients of designations from the University Honors Program. The designation of University Honors with Distinction indicates the completion of at least thirty credit hours of honors-level coursework throughout a student’s undergraduate study. The designation of University Honors indicates the completion of at least eighteen credit hours of honors-level coursework. Both designations require the completion of an undergraduate honors thesis. Students earning honors designations are noted throughout the commencement program along with their thesis titles.

Graduation with Honors

Three levels of honors are awarded to students on graduation from a bachelor’s degree curriculum. To receive an honor rating, the student must earn not less than 55 semester hours of credit at this university.

The names of the students receiving honors are identified in the commencement program and on their academic transcript.

Summa Cum Laude

Students whose cumulative UNI grade point average places them in the top 3% of those students graduating from their academic major college/division will be awarded Summa Cum Laude. Recipients of this honor will wear a bronze medallion.

Magna Cum Laude

Students whose cumulative UNI grade point average places them in the top 4% through top 8% of those students graduating from their academic major college/division will be awarded Magna Cum Laude. Recipients of this honor will wear a purple cord.

Cum Laude

Students whose cumulative UNI grade point average places them in the top 9% through top 15% of those students graduating from their academic major college/division will be awarded Cum Laude. Recipients of this honor will wear a gold cord.

Legacy Graduates

The University of Northern Iowa has a long and proud tradition of multi-generational family graduates. The Legacy designation (◊) in the commencement program signifies that a parent and/or grandparent is also a UNI graduate. Legacy information included in this program was submitted by the graduate.

Lux Service Award

The University of Northern Iowa Lux Service Award is presented by the Office of the Dean of Students annually to undergraduate students who best represent the ideal of service to the university community.

The honor is conferred in the spirit of keeping the light of service to others burning bright at UNI. The name of the award, Lux, is from the university’s official seal that features a burning lamp of knowledge and the Latin word for light.

Congratulations to the 2018 Lux Service Award Recipients:

Hunter Flesch is a senior elementary and middle level education major with a minor in K through 8 basic science. He has been involved in several organizations on and off campus, has served at the highest leadership levels in his fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and in the Northern Iowa Student Government. Hunter also contributed many hours as a tutor at the UNI Center for Urban Education and as a mentor at a local junior high school. His lasting legacy will be his work to develop the “You Matter at UNI” mental health awareness week on campus by facilitating a youth leadership program that has positively impacted over 200 eighth-grade boys in the Cedar Valley and by helping to raise over $10,000 for Sexual Assault Prevention Week programming.

Meghan Busswitz is a senior elementary education major with a minor in special education who will be student teaching this fall. She first started her involvement on campus by contributing many hours to Habitat for Humanity and Northeast Iowa Food Bank. This spirit of service continued in her work with Residence Hall Honorary, Northern Iowa Student Government, Student Admissions Ambassadors and two years as a resident assistant. Megan also demonstrated a strong commitment to inclusivity, working as a member of the LGBTQ+ community task force to develop UNI’s first ever LGBT living learning community.

Jamal White is a senior marketing and organizational leadership management double major with a certification in project management. He has been involved in over two dozen organizations and committees, including National Residence Hall Honorary, Black Student Union, Connecting Alumni to Students, American Marketing Association, Team TC/TK, Ethnic Student Promoters and Student Admission Ambassadors. White is also a two-year resident assistant, an orientation and UNI Now leader, a four-year participant in Dance Marathon and a leader in Northern Iowa Student Government.
Honorary Degree

Nancy Jane Price, Doctor of Literature, \textit{honoris causa}

Nancy Jane Price has a unique, storied connection to the University of Northern Iowa. Price was born on March 16, 1925, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. At age four, Price moved with her parents from South Dakota to Detroit, Michigan, when her father became a director of personnel for the Detroit public schools. Childhood in Detroit allowed Price to attend classes at a center created for children who showed artistic promise: Edsel Ford’s Children House. A writer as well as a young artist, Price won a national \textit{Scholastic Magazine} award at age 14.

At age 15, Price moved to Cedar Falls when her father, Dr. Malcolm Price, became the fourth president of Iowa State Teachers College. She attended the College’s “Campus School” (then in Sabin Hall) for her junior and senior years of high school. Nancy Jane Price went on and attended Cornell College where she earned her Bachelor’s Degree in English and Art in 1946. In 1945, she married Navy Lieutenant Howard Thompson at the President’s House.

Following World War II, the couple moved to Boston. Howard Thompson taught history at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for four years while he completed his doctorate at Harvard. President Malcolm Price retired in 1950, but in 1955 Price and Thompson returned to Cedar Falls when Dr. Thompson joined the Iowa State Teachers College History Department. Nancy Jane Price nurtured her three young children in the 1950s, painted huge wall murals of Paris and Rome in their home, and began writing, first poetry and then short stories.

In 1956, Price enrolled in poet James Hearst’s writing class. Hearst encouraged her to send her poems to national publications and, with the help of his friend poet Paul Engle, connected her with the William Morris literary agency. Price earned her Master’s Degree in English in 1964 from the State College of Iowa, formerly known as the Iowa State Teachers College and now known as the University of Northern Iowa. She went on to do further graduate work at the famous Iowa Writers’ Workshop in Iowa City. Across the 1960s, her poems and short stories began to appear regularly in national publications: \textit{The Atlantic}, \textit{Harper’s Bazaar}, \textit{The Nation}, \textit{Ladies’ Home Journal}, \textit{New York Times}, \textit{America}, \textit{The Hornbook}, \textit{Virginia Quarterly Review}, the \textit{Quarterly Review of Literature}, and more.

Price joined the University of Northern Iowa Department of English Language and Literature in 1980 as a tenured Full Professor. For many years, she taught creative writing and often opened her home for classes. She is a prolific writer. To date, Price has published ten novels and a collection of poems, seven of the novels set in Cedar Falls—many with scenes on the university campus. Price is the rare writer who also is an illustrator. She began illustrating her novels more than a decade ago.

Nancy’s third and best known novel, \textit{Sleeping with the Enemy}, graced both national and international best-seller lists and has been translated into more than 20 languages. The film of the novel, which starred Julia Roberts, opened as the number one film in the nation at its February 1991 premier and continued to draw audiences, becoming the fourth highest grossing film of that year. In 2001, a decade after its release, the film ranked as the second most popular movie based on a novel written by a woman. Price has been ahead of her time in her fiction. In 1987, the term “domestic abuse” had not yet entered the national conversation and indeed, the phrase “sleeping with the enemy” has entered the language.

Of the seven novels that followed, these have major settings in Cedar Falls: \textit{Night Woman} (1992); \textit{No One Knows} (2004); \textit{Stolen Away} (2010); \textit{Playing with Fire} (2012); and \textit{Three at the Door} (2018). Price is still writing novels, which she illustrates. Three at the Door, her most recent novel is set in and around Seerley Park—with a key scene under the University of Northern Iowa Campanile.

Nancy Jane Price has received countless awards and accolades, including The Poetry Society of America Award, the Karolyn Foundation Writer in Residence, the Rockefeller Foundation Resident Scholar, and the Tyrone Guthrie Centre Resident Scholar. Price has been ahead of her time in her fiction. Her writings continually ask us to look again at our culture and how we shape lives.

Upon the recommendation of the University Honorary Degrees Committee, the Faculty Senate and the president of the university, and with the unanimous consent of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa, it is a privilege to present Nancy Jane Price for the Degree of Doctor of Literature, \textit{honoris causa}.

The Academic Procession

The procession begins with the entrance of the candidates for degrees. Led by faculty marshals, the candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, both the Teaching Program and the Liberal Arts Program, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science enter in groups, representing each of the undergraduate colleges. They are followed by the candidates for the highest degrees.

Students wearing a bronze medallion are those graduating summa cum laude (with highest honors), which represent the top three percent of each college by grade point average; or those graduating students receiving a Purple and Old Gold Award, given to those students who have excelled in scholarship or who have shown conspicuous achievement in particular areas.

The procession continues with representatives of the faculty.

The President’s Party forms the final section of the academic procession. Headed by the commencement marshal, it includes the president; members of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa; administrative officers; the academic deans; and honored guests.

The individuals leading the procession of the graduates, the faculty and the president’s party carry a mace which is a symbol of office. Those individuals are the student body president, the chair of the faculty and the university commencement marshal. Over long tradition, a mace is a symbol of authority and official celebration. The university mace is the largest of the three maces and it embodies the history and dignity of the entire university. The president wears a jeweled “Chain of Office” symbolizing the wearer is the leader of the institution. The silver chain includes links with the names of previous presidents of the institution, as well as previous names of the university.

The academic costumes worn trace their origin to the Middle Ages when long-sleeved hooded gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated stone colleges. Over the centuries, much diversity occurred, and to bring some order, in the United States in 1894 an intercollegiate system of academic costume was agreed on, now adhered to by American institutions. According to this code, both the styling and colors of the regalia have significance.

The design of the gown indicates the degree. The bachelor’s is a simple gown with a full sleeve. The master’s gown is much like it except for the long sleeve which hangs loose. The doctoral gown is fuller and more elaborate. It has velvet edging and three velvet stripes on the full sleeve. The color of this velvet may be black or in the color appropriate to the degree.

Hoods, which are worn over the gowns, are similar for all degrees, although differing slightly in length. The candidates for the bachelor’s degrees usually do not wear the hood. The hood has a velvet edging which indicates the area of the degree, and the inside or lining of the hood is satin in the colors of the college or university granting the degree.

A partial list of the degree colors to be found on the edge of the hood or the trimming on the doctoral gown is as follows:

- Apricot - Nursing
- Drab - Business
- Orange - Engineering
- Blue, dark - Philosophy
- Green - Medicine
- Pink - Music
- Blue, light - Education
- Green Sage - Physical Education
- Purple - Law
- Brown - Fine Arts
- Lemon - Library Science
- Scarlet - Theology
- Citron - Social Science
- Maize - Agriculture
- White - Arts and Letters
- Copper - Economics
- Maroon - Family
- Yellow Golden - Science and Consumer Sciences
