OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

KIM REYNOLDS
LT. GOVERNOR

December 2016

Dear Panther Graduates:

Congratulations! We would like to take this opportunity to commend you as you graduate from the University of Northern Iowa. All of your hard work and dedication which has brought you to this wonderful day will serve you well as you remember all of the challenges and successes of your college career and look forward to a bright and promising future. We are so proud of all of your accomplishments while studying here at UNI.

Throughout your years of study at the University of Northern Iowa in a variety of subject matters ranging from education to business, communications to technology, health fields to the arts you have not only bettered yourselves but also your community and our great State. Your contributions will help to make Iowa a better state to live and work. You will be the leaders and innovators of tomorrow as you graduate today and begin your careers with a first-rate education from this excellent institution.

We are hopeful that you will achieve and exceed all of your goals as you begin your career or continue your education, and proceed to establish yourselves in your communities and in the world. The lessons and skills that you have developed while at UNI will be a great benefit to you and contribute to your success.

It is our pleasure to personally congratulate you along with your friends and family as you celebrate your graduation from the University of Northern Iowa. We wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Terry E. Branstad".

Terry E. Branstad
Governor of Iowa

University Honors Program

Graduates wearing gold University Honors medallions are recipients of designations from the University Honors Program. The designation of University Honors with Distinction indicates the completion of at least thirty credit hours of honors-level course work throughout a student's undergraduate study. The designation of University Honors indicates the completion of at least eighteen credit hours of honors-level coursework. Both designations require the completion of an undergraduate honors thesis. Students earning honors designations are noted throughout the commencement program along with their thesis title.

Legacy Graduates

The University of Northern Iowa has a long and proud tradition of multi-generational family graduates. The Legacy designation (%) in the commencement program signifies that a parent and/or grandparent are also UNI graduates. The UNI Alumni Association celebrates this special connection with alma mater and welcomes all alumni to submit their legacy information to info@unialum.org. Legacy information included in this program was submitted by the graduate.

Military Science

The following graduates have earned a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army.

Taylor M. Julander	Altoona, Iowa
Alec M. Krekel	Cedar Falls, Iowa
Joshua J. Mixdorf	Waterloo, Iowa

James A. Leach

James A. Leach is a distinguished leader who has a long career of public service. He has worked in the U.S. Foreign Service, U.S. Congress, the National Endowment for the Humanities and has held various positions in institutions of higher education including Harvard University, Princeton University and the University of Iowa. Mr. Leach, a native of Davenport, Iowa, earned a BA in Politics from Princeton University, a MA in Soviet Studies from the School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University and continued his studies doing research in economics and Soviet politics at the London School of Economics.

Mr. Leach, most recently appointed as the Interim Head of the University of Iowa Museum of Art, has received multiple awards including decorations from two foreign governments, the Wayne Morse Integrity in Politics Award, the Adlai Stevenson Award from the United Nations Association, and the Woodrow Wilson Medal from Princeton University. He has also been honored with multiple honorary degrees.

As a Foreign Service Officer, Mr. Leach served as a delegate to the Geneva Disarmament Conference and the U.N. General Assembly. In 1973, he resigned his commission in protest of the Saturday Night Massacre when Richard Nixon fired his Attorney General, Elliot Richardson, and the independent counsel investigating the Watergate break-in, Archibald Cox.

Mr. Leach had a notable thirty year career as a representative in Congress and was known for his bipartisanship. He was first elected in 1976 to serve the second district of Iowa. He chaired the House Committee on Banking and Financial Services, the subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, and the Arms Control and Foreign Policy Caucus for the Congressional Executive Commission on China where he pressed for a Comprehensive Test Ban and led the first House debate on nuclear freeze. He was also a senior member of the House Committee on International Relations from 2001 to 2006. Additionally, Mr. Leach was a founder and former co-chair of the Congressional Humanities Council.

In 2007, Mr. Leach served as Interim Director of the Institute of Politics and Lecturer at John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and also served as Professor at the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University. In 2009, he was appointed by President Barack Obama to serve as Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), a position Leach held until 2013. Under his leadership at the NEH, the Bridging Cultures program was developed and the National Digital Public Library was launched with NEH support. Bridging Cultures was instituted with the goal of promoting understanding and mutual respect for diverse groups within the United States and abroad while the National Digital Public Library helped to establish a centralized collection of digital materials. In 2013, Mr. Leach served as Public Affairs Chair at the University of Iowa College of Law.

Additionally, Mr. Leach has served on the boards of several public companies and nonprofit organizations. This includes chairing the governing board of Common Cause and serving on the boards of Century Foundation, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the Kettering Foundation, and Pro Publica.

Upon recommendation of the University Honorary Degrees Committee, the Faculty Senate and the president of the university; and with the unanimous consent of the Board of Regents, it is a privilege to present James A. Leach for the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Graduate College

All graduate degree candidates are listed under the college of their academic major.

The Academic Procession

The procession begins with the entrance of the candidates for degrees. Led by faculty marshals, the candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, both the Teaching Program and the Liberal Arts Program, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Science enter in groups, representing each of the undergraduate colleges. They are followed by the candidates for the highest degrees.

Students wearing a bronze medallion are those graduating summa cum laude (with highest honors), which represent the top three percent of each college by grade point average; or those graduating students receiving a Purple and Old Gold Award, given to those students who have excelled in scholarship or who have shown conspicuous achievement in particular areas.

The procession continues with representatives of the faculty.

The President's Party forms the final section of the academic procession. Headed by the commencement marshal, it includes the president; members of the Board of Regents, state of Iowa; administrative officers; the academic deans; and honored guests.

The individuals leading the procession of the graduates, the faculty and the president's party carry a mace which is a symbol of office. Those individuals are the student body president, the chair of the faculty and the university commencement marshal. Over long tradition, a mace is a symbol of authority and official celebration. The university mace is the largest of the three maces and it embodies the history and dignity of the entire university. The president wears a jeweled "Chain of Office" symbolizing the wearer is the leader of the institution. The silver chain includes links with the names of previous presidents of the institution, as well as previous names of the university.

The academic costumes worn trace their origin to the Middle Ages when long-sleeved hooded gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated stone colleges. Over the centuries, much diversity occurred, and to bring some order, in the United States in 1894 an intercollegiate system of academic costume was agreed on, now adhered to by American institutions. According to this code, both the styling and colors of the regalia have significance.

The design of the gown indicates the degree. The bachelor's is a simple gown with a full sleeve. The master's gown is much like it except for the long sleeve which hangs loose. The doctoral gown is fuller and more elaborate. It has velvet edging and three velvet stripes on the full sleeve. The color of this velvet may be black or in the color appropriate to the degree.

Hoods, which are worn over the gowns, are similar for all degrees, although differing slightly in length. The candidates for the bachelor's degrees usually do not wear the hood. The hood has a velvet edging which indicates the area of the degree, and the inside or lining of the hood is satin in the colors of the college or university granting the degree.

A partial list of the degree colors to be found on the edge of the hood or the trimming on the doctoral gown is as follows:

Apricot - Nursing	Drab - Business	Orange - Engineering
Blue, dark - Philosophy	Green - Medicine	Pink - Music
Blue, light - Education	Green Sage - Physical Education	Purple - Law
Brown - Fine Arts	Lemon - Library Science	Scarlet - Theology
Citron - Social Science	Maize - Agriculture	White - Arts and Letters
Copper - Economics	Maroon - Family and Consumer Sciences	Yellow, Golden - Science

Service Organizations

CATS

Graduates wearing purple and black cords are members of Connecting Alumni To Students (CATS), the official student chapter of the UNI Alumni Association. These dedicated students represent the UNI student body to alumni and friends. CATS create and promote the lasting connections between past, present and future Panthers.

Ethnic Student Promoters

Graduates wearing purple and silver cords are members of Ethnic Student Promoters (ESP). ESP members are dedicated to creating, sustaining, and supporting diversity at UNI through the Office of Admissions. The promising students provide services to the University by assisting with the recruitment of new and diverse students, hosting events and visit days and creating an inclusive environment.
