Backordered vs Out of Stock

- If a book is listed out of stock on the website, the Bookstore sold out and have none on order and we can't pull from another store's inventory.
 - To resolve this, the Bookstore needs to place an order with the publisher. Rhonda @ 2339txt@follett.com can get an order placed or more copies requested.
- A Backordered book is a book we have an order placed for and are awaiting delivery from the publisher. Students get notified as soon as it arrives.
